

I believe the 5 MHz allocation proposal, if passed, will greatly enhance near and mid range emergency communications capabilities especially during hurricane season. Our M.A.R.S. nets near those frequencies allow NVIS coverage of the entire Southeast region and the Carribean with far less than 100 watt output. I typically operate 20 watts and seldom have a problem being heard.

Scott Holland

NT4P

AFA2AS